Holstein Breeders to Meet.

The annual meeting of the Central Wisconsin Holstein Breeders Association will be held at Vesper, on Friday, March 19th. An elaborate program is being prepared by those who have the affair in charge.

Mystic Workers Attention

At the regular meeting of the Mystic Workers to-night several candidates will be received into the order. Other important business will be brought up before this meeting and a large attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Roenius have returned from a brief visit with relatives and friends in Richwood and Watertown. On Monday evening Mr. Roenius, as President of the Wisconsin Elks was the principal speaker at a banquet given by the Elks of Watertown.

HABITS.

When you speak of a habit there pops up in some people's minds the thought of a drunkard, or the man who uses tobacco to excess, these being the only things there are according to their idea, that a man can become addicted to. But there are other habits, many of them, and while some of them may not be quite so deadly as the excessive use of alcohol, or so nerve-destroying as a continuous use of tobacco, still they have their drawbacks, and do a certain amount toward using up a man's time and curtailing his income and making him a nuisance to the general public.

One of these habits we call to mind at the present time is the postoffice habit. The postoffice habit generally fastens itself onto some sort of a professional man, a man who is boss of his own time and has nobody to say whether he shall remain at his work or not.

This postoffice habit is one of the most fastidious to which a man is heir. He starts in on it mildly, like the man who takes an occasional drink to brace him up for the day's work, but pretty soon he is no better than any raving maniac who has only one thought in mind, and that his hobby.

The man who is developing the post office habit begins by stopping into the postoffice every time he goes by and asking for his mail. Then he gets so he will make trips to the postoffice to ask for his mail, even though he lives several blocks away, and if he cannot get away to go himself he will send a boy or somebody to ask for it. The chances are a hundred to one that he never in his life gets whether it lay in the postoffice an hour or a week, but this fact makes no difference. Some of these sort of maniacs after they have got along a ways in the disease will write letters of inquiry, send for catalogs that will not be needed, and do all kinds of foolish things of this sort in order to increase their mail.

During the last stages of the mania you will find them in the postoffice at all hours of the day and evening. At first they run for the postoffice every time a train whistles, but after a time they camp right out in the lobby of the office, using one of the desks as a seat, and at last makes some excuse about an important engagement, and as soon as he is out of sight of his friends he fairly runs for the postoffice. Just how he feels when he finds there is nothing for him can not be told. Maybe you know.

Another Bit of Wood County History.

In the year 1875, Mr. Frank O. Wyatt purchased from the United States, forty acres of land near Babcock, in Wood County, and in 1876, received from the Government the Patent or Deed to said lands.

This land by the process of several conveyances in the way of Warranty Deeds, Quit Claim Deeds, Tax Deeds and a Will, eventually in the year 1897, became the property of Messrs. A. and B., who were operating more or less, together in the real estate business.

In the year 1902, Mr. W., who lived in the vicinity of this land, decided to purchase the same, and negotiated with Mr. A., whom he understood was the owner of the property. In the transfer of the property, Mr. W., not realizing the necessity of an Abstract of Title of the property, did not require Mr. A. to furnish an Abstract, and the fact that Mr. B. was the owner of an undivided one-half interest in this property, was entirely overlooked.

When Mr. W. received his deed on the premises, it was signed only by Mr. A. and his wife, and the Title to an undivided one-half interest, remained in the name of Mr. B. although Mr. W. moved onto the property and made his home there.

Recently Mr. W. wished to make a deal on the property, and the gentleman with whom he was negotiating required an Abstract of Title to be furnished, setting forth the condition of the Title. When the Abstract was prepared, it disclosed the fact that Mr. B. who was the owner of an undivided one-half interest in 1902, at the time Mr. W. purchased the property, or thought he did, was still the owner of one-half interest.

When Mr. A. was apprised of the condition of the Title which he had conveyed to Mr. W., he indignantly denied this Mr. B. had ever had any interest in this land. However, when confronted with the Abstract of Title he immediately made arrangements for procuring for Mr. W. the undivided one-half interest of Mr. B. Fortunately, Mr. B. was still here to deal with. Had Mr. B. in the meantime been called by Death or removed to a distant State, it would have been a difficult matter and entailed a good deal of expense and loss of time to have obtained for Mr. W. this one-half interest which he did not obtain in 1902.

The Title to a great deal of property in this County is in equally as deplorable condition and even worse than the above. How is the Title to your property?

DODGE BROTHERS
NEW AUTOMOBILE.

The new Dodge car is now the sensation of the automobile world, and will soon be displayed and demonstrated in this city by Fred C. Ragan, representing the Auto Sales Co. of Stevens Point. If nothing unforeseen occurs Mr. Ragan expects to have one of the new cars here this week, when it will be possible for prospective customers to look over the new car and see for themselves what it will do. Below is an accurate description and history of this wonderful car that prospective buyers should read before purchasing any car on the market.

The Dodge car is the infant of the motor world in point of years being produced, and as a result a detailed description of the car is not out of place at this time.

Since the first touring car was placed on exhibition over a month ago, the equipment and finish of the Dodge car has received much praise from dealers and motorists of long experience. The equipment is most unusual for a car in the popular price field. Briefly summed up it includes real leather upholstery, chrome vanadium steel springs of the self-lubricating type, Timken bearings, chrome vanadium steel gears, one-man top, Northeast electric starter and lighting system, and it is said, the almost exclusive use of drop forgings in the manufacture of the car.

The car is a roomy five passenger machine and has a wheel base of 119 inches. Non-skid tires are furnished on the rear wheels.

Employ Their Experience.

In designing a car of light weight Dodge Brothers have made use of their experience gained through exhaustive tests carried on with chrome-vanadium steel in the days when they were manufacturing automobiles.

Wherever the employment of chrome-vanadium steel would give strength without excessive weight, its use was accepted. As a result, such important parts as the crankshaft, valve stems and springs, connecting rods and transmission gears are all manufactured from this high grade material.

Drop-forgings, another important item in the making of the new car, are also employed to a degree unusual in the moderate priced car. Dodge Brothers are in a position to do this, because they have a large shop in which there are forty-five steam hammers.

These forgings are stronger than castings of similar shape would be, and at the same time are lighter. Not every car maker, it is explained, can use these forged parts, because he has not the equipment to make them. If he bought them, the cost would run up, and that is often prohibitive to the small production maker. The enormous outlay for such equipment as Dodge Brothers have for forging work alone could not be made to pay for itself for a small output.

Among other improvements over standard automobile practice, the Dodge Brothers have devised a method whereby none of the transmission gears are in mesh when the car is running in direct drive. In the ordinary gearset the gears are constantly rotating.

Advantages in Transmission.

But in the new Dodge Brothers transmission, the gear on the main shaft is slid back on the square end of that shaft and out of mesh with the countershaft gear. As soon as the direct drive connection is made, the countershaft is inoperative and the gears are at rest. The advantages of this are obvious. The unnecessary wear on the countershaft bearings is eliminated, to say nothing of the silence of the transmission when the drive is direct.

The Dodge power plant is a compactly designed type which consists of a 3 1/2 x 4 1/2 inch, L-head four-cylinder, block cast motor, with removable head, with a leather faced cone clutch, and the three speed, selective gearset the construction of which has already been mentioned. These are built as unit and suspended in the chassis at three points. All valves are enclosed, and the exterior of the engine is free from unsightly equipment.

A waterproof Elsenman mechanism is employed being driven from the end of the pump shaft on the right side of the engine. The well tested North East system of starting and lighting is the main electrical equipment of the car, and takes care of everything along that line with the exception of ignition. This North East equipment consists principally of the combined motor-generator carried on the left forward side and driven by an enclosed silent chain from the crankshaft with a three to one reduction. This is a simple and efficient form of drive.

Included in the equipment of the Dodge car as such items as ventilating and rain-exister windshield, one man top, electric horn, Jones speedometer, robe rail, foot rail, tools and demountable rims with one extra rim carried at the rear.

The new car sells for $785 F. O. B. Detroit, everything complete.

Rural Carriers Meet.

The Wood county association of rural mail carriers held a session in this city on Monday, that being a holiday for them. There was a good attendance from all over the county, and the day was spent in a most pleasant manner by those in attendance. The morning was devoted to business, and at noon there was a banquet, and the afternoon was spent in having a good time. Among the business transacted during the day was the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows:

President—C. H. Nissen.
Vice president—D. J. Robinson of Arpin.
Sec-Treas.—R. Timm of this city.
Delegates to state convention—E. Miller and L. Febrbach.
Alternates—D. J. Robinson and Jacob Esser.

TRYING FOR A DRY STATE.

The legislature of the state of Iowa is threshing out the prohibition matter at the present time and it may be possible that the entire state will go dry.

Some years ago it was considered that the wave of temperance that was sweeping over the country was only a temporary attack of reform, and that a few years would see it all pass away and no more would be heard of it. However, it seems like rather a live issue at the present time, and the indications are that it will continue to spread until the entire nation is on the water wagon.

Conservative old toppers say that Wisconsin will be one of the last of the states in the union to embrace the prohibition movement, but it is coming, and the limit that is put on the time when Wisconsin will go dry is about ten years hence.

Of course there is no possible way of telling when a state will go dry, and while some people may consider it little short of sacrilege to say so, the indications seem to all point toward the coming event, and that at no very distant day.

CANDY ANDERSON
MAKES HIS ESCAPE

After it is all over with, and Candy Anderson has served his time and has departed for other pastures, if such a time ever comes, the newspapers of Grand Rapids should tender Mr. Anderson a vote of thanks, for the excellent manner in which he has supplied their want with at least one news item a week ever since the Fourth of July, on the night of which day he made his escape from the city, carrying with him a certain amount of money which had been wrongfully retained in his possession, and which belonged to Joe Wheeler, and for whom he had been working up to the time that he made his exit from the city, as noted above.

It does not seem as if a man who was serving a sixty day sentence in the county jail would attempt to escape and thus lay himself liable to a sentence in Waupun, but this is what Mr. Anderson did on Saturday, in fact, he not only tried to escape, but he did actually get away, but was captured the same evening at Junction City while engaged in playing a game of pool with a chance acquaintance.

Sixty days in jail at this time of the year is not more irksome than sixty days in a printing office or sixty days most any other place, but it seems that Candy could not see it this way, and the result was that he simply left without stopping to bid the sheriff or any of his family goodbye.

On the day mentioned Candy was engaged in painting, and along toward evening the sheriff was called away. Anderson took advantage of the opportunity to slip away, and went to the St. Paul depot where he boarded the evening passenger train, taking the blind baggage, and went to Junction City.

He was soon missed, and Sheriff Blunt got into communication with the officers along the line, and the result was that he was soon picked up, and the sheriff went up on Monday and brought him back to this city, and he has since settled down to the humdrum existence incident to jail life.

Locals Win Two.

The basketball game played between the Stevens Point highs and the local highs, at Stevens Point on Friday resulted in a victory for the locals the score being 23 to 13. Stevens Point started out strong the first half scoring 11 points while our boys were annexing 5. In the second half, however, Grand Rapids outplayed the Pointers in every way, scoring 18 points while Stevens Point was adding 2 to their score. The final score was 23 to 13 in favor of the locals.

At the local Highschool gym Friday evening the Lincoln Freshmen trined the Marshallfield high freshmen by a score of 36 to 4. The game was hotly contested, the score at the end of the first half being 2 to 2.

The Highschool team will play the Stevens Point Normal team at the local gym next Friday. The Normals have an unusually strong team this year and a good game is expected.

Death of Mrs. Kristofsky.

Mrs. Augusta Kristofsky died at her home in this city on the west side on Saturday after an illness of several weeks duration, cause of death being heart trouble. Deceased was 64 years of age and is survived by her husband and three children, the latter being Mrs. Augusta Smallbrook, Ernest and Herman Kristofsky.

Mrs. Kristofsky was a woman who was well liked and had a large number of friends who will extend to the family their heartfelt sympathy.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from the German Lutheran church on the west side, Rev. Wm. Nommensen conducting the services.

Has a Good Word for Grand Rapids.

John Bengner, who now resides at Belvidere, Ill., but who for some time occupied his premises on rural route 4 out of this city, in remitting his subscription to "The Grand Rapids Tribune," has a good word to say for Grand Rapids, and says he is glad to note that the city is progressing and asserts that we certainly have a good location for a prosperous city.

Mr. Bengner further states that the section of the country and the farmers are all prosperous, and that farm land is selling at from $200 to $300 per acre.

Leaves for Rochester.

D. D. Waters leaves the first of next week for Rochester, Minn. where he will spend a month attending the clinics at the Mayo Bros. hospital.

Louis Schall is considering the purchase of a taxicab and going into the livery business.

MONEY FOR FOREST RESERVE NOT LEGAL

The supreme court has decided that the state reforestation law is invalid. This decision of the supreme court is the result of a case in which the state of Wisconsin brought suit against the state as trustee for trust funds, and was won out by the state.

That is, the state of Wisconsin had money in its possession, which had been obtained thru the sale of land grants that had been made to the state by the United States, and this money was used for the purchase of land for reforestation purposes in different parts of the state, mostly, of course, in the northern part, where there are still some forests standing. These grants to the state by the United States were mainly for educational purposes, and it was contended that the money could not be used for other purposes, and it seems that the supreme court holds the same way.

The decision in the width of its scope in wiping out a state policy is one of the most important which has been handed down in Wisconsin in many years. Attorney H. R. Goggins of this city represented the secretary of state in the case and the decision of the supreme court was substantially as claimed by Mr. Goggins all the way thru.

In substance the court holds that section 10 of article 8 of the constitution was not legally amended; that the land contracts for the purchase of forestry reserve lands are void and not authorized by the statute. The present forestry statutes are unconstitutional and void; that the diversion of the trust funds is unlawful, and a reference, the Hon. Samuel D. Hastings of Green Bay, is appointed to settle the account between the state and its trust funds, and a lien on the lands belonging to the trust funds and unlawfully sold is declared.

The amendment to the constitution designed to permit works of internal improvement, at state expense, as to forestry matters, was not legally adopted, says the court.

The board of land commissioners and Judge Samuel D. Hastings of Green Bay are named to make an accounting of all the transactions which are declared illegal in this decision, and they are to report to the court, which will then make a final adjustment settling up the affairs of the forestry department.

Some of the points that are covered in the decision are as follows: The amendment to the constitution designed to permit works of internal improvement, at state expense, as to forestry matters, was not legally adopted.

The land purchase contracts purporting to obligate the state for some $250,000 are void for several reasons, particularly because the creation of such indebtedness and issuance of evidences of indebtedness and also the incurring of any state indebtedness of a general nature, and except in emergency cases, in excess of $100,000 are prohibited by the constitution.

When the land purchase contracts were entered into the state was indebted in the sum of over $200,000, which includes $100,000 borrowed by the state to defray the cost of the first state capitol and the hospital for the insane. The large amount of indebtedness (the taken up for the trust funds or borrowed of the trustees of such funds, is all, essentially state indebtedness under the constitution and still exists in form.

The use of the trust funds as indicated was unconstitutional. The $2,000,000 and over paid to the state by the United States since 1864 on account of its expenditures for war purposes, belonged to the trust funds and should have been used to repay the money irregularly withdrawn therefrom.

Payments of the $2,000,000 and over to the state and used by the state for general fund purposes did not discharge the state indebtedness to the trust fund.

School and university lands proper are under the constitutional jurisdiction of the commissioners of public lands and the attempt to displace them and turn the control of the land over to the board of forestry is void.

The legislation setting aside the trust lands for forestry purposes and devoting one class and the money arising from the other class, to the building up of a forest reserve is unconstitutional except insofar as it relates to use of the trust lands to produce proceeds for the trust fund.

This decision by the supreme court is being received in different ways in the various parts of the state. In the southern part there is a walling as if the chance of the state over doing anything along this line were forever gone, while in the northern part of the state, where the lands were being bought up for forestry purposes, there is pretty generally rejoicing.

The contention in the northern part of the state is that this land trust is being withdrawn from private ownership as a tendency to impoverish the bounty in which it is located, after being acquired by the state it no longer pays any taxes, and the result is that the county is under the same expense as it was before, with a very materially decreased income. Whether or not this decreased income is large enough to put up much of a howl about, is not known, but it has been done ever since the matter was first brought up.

Big Time at Wausau.

About fifty members of the local lodge of Knights of Columbus and also those who were to become members of the order, went to Wausau on Sunday where there was some big doings in that lodge that day.

There were members and candidates from a number of the surrounding towns, and it is reported that all had a most enjoyable time.

Death of an Infant.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goldberg are mourning the death of their infant daughter who was born on Thursday and died the day following. The funeral was held on Sunday from the Kellner church, Rev. Radtke officiating. Among those who were out from the city to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Nio Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gross and Mr. and Mrs. Will Rickman.

Couldn't Make It Stick.

Last week the bakers of Merrill raised the price of bread to six cents a loaf, owing to the fact that flour has gone up to an outrageous figure since the war began. It seems, however, that the general public did not approve of the raise, for the business of the bakers fell off 40 per cent, and the result was that they reduced the price to the old figure again the same week.

Sharp Practice Should be Stopped.

They say that you cannot cheat a man on a piece of real estate. The land is there and you can look it over and feel of it and take some of it up in your hand and dig up places in the corner of the field, and then after your investigations are all over you can take it or leave it, just as you want to. So it is impossible to cheat a man in a real estate deal. And yet if some of the things that are told of are true, it is possible to shave profits close to the line in some instances.

Some of the boys were telling about a case that occurred in this city recently, that might be considered a trifling affair. This man bought a piece of land not so very far from Grand Rapids. It was not as good land as some land is, altho it may have been better than some other, and the result was that he only paid a thousand dollars for the piece of property. Then he mortgaged the land to a friend for one thousand dollars and started out to look for a man who was looking for a chance to get back to the soil. He found such a man and after telling him what he had for sale, showed him what he had secured one thousand dollars on the land on a mortgage, and explained to the prospective buyer that this thousand dollars represented only about one third the value of the land. This looked perfectly plausible to the man who was looking for a farm, and the result was that he bit on the deal, and he now has a farm that he could not get a thousand dollars for to save his soul from perdition. All of which is pretty smart business, but it does not do the man who is a legitimate real estate dealer any good, nor does it improve the reputation of this part of the country to any great extent. It is a practice that should be stopped, as such deals are sure to result in dissatisfaction, and in some cases litigation.

Death of Aged Resident.

James Holmes, one of the oldest residents of the city of Grand Rapids died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eliza LaVigne, on Wednesday afternoon after an illness of some length, death being due to old age, deceased being 95 years old at the time of his age. Mr. Holmes, who came to this home and bed for some little time before his death, was until recent years quite hale and hearty for a man of his years. He was able to get about town and visit his friends, and was a great reader, until a short time before his death, when his eyesight failed him.

Deceased was born in Tippecanoe, Ireland, 95 years ago, but came to this country when a comparatively young man, at which time he located in New York. He came to Wood County in 1880 and bought a farm in the town of Rudolph. He lived there for about 12 years, and then sold out in 1892 and moved to this city, where he has since made his home. His wife preceded him in death six years ago, both Mr. and Mrs. Holmes having made their residence their daughter, Mrs. LaVigne.

The funeral was held on Saturday from the Episcopal church, Rev. A. C. Miedner conducting the services.

J. B. Arpin Elected President.

At a meeting of the directors of the Holland Packing Company which was held in the offices of J. B. Arpin (Alhanywegkrobl) Cannichell-Plamp-Mo on Monday evening, Mr. Arpin was elected president to succeed the late Nic Relland. Jos. Relland was elected a director to fill the vacancy made by Mr. Arpin. H. B. Wolland has been promoted to Supt. and Manager of the plant while Peter Relland was promoted to the position of Manager of the Sales and Purchasing department.

Will Take Charge March 1st.

W. E. Warren, the new proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, will take charge of that place on the 1st of March, when the present proprietor, Patrick Mulroy, will retire from business. Mr. Warren has been conducting the Bruce hotel in Stevens Point for several years past, and in this business he has proven himself quite successful and is spoken very highly of by the people in the town where he is leaving.

Gave Some Good Shows.

The Sherman Kelly stock company closed a week's engagement at Daly's theater on Sunday evening, a large band the grading the last performance of the company. In fact the company was favored with good houses all the time they were here, and the manner in which they were spoken of by theater goers indicated that they gave the public good satisfaction at all times.

The Stanley Republican, a clean well-conducted Republican newspaper in a recent issue said:
"A leading Republican paper of the state alluding to President Wilson's activities in behalf of peace both in Mexico and Europe, sneeringly alludes to him as 'Our Praying (President)' and would have us infer that the president is not sincere or at best is impractical in his efforts to preserve the neutrality of the United States.

The Republican has no sympathy with such peanut political journalism.
It has been a long time since this
persistently and conscientiously striving to do what he considered best for the country as has president Wilson.
It has been a long time since we had a president who has worked so industriously with an eye single to the purpose of carrying out the behests of the people as indicated when they approved the platform on which he was elected. President Wilson has hewed to the line regardless of political considerations, and has done this to an extent that is refreshing when we study the history of American politics. We may not agree with his tariff policy but we must give him credit for honesty and for a measure of statesmanship and executive ability which has seldom been equalled.
We cannot help feeling that the fortunes of the whole people are being infinitely better served than they would have been had a certain former Republican who was a candidate in opposition to him at the polls been elected. President Wilson is a safe President and we believe the people as a whole are inclined to feel the same as we do about it.

Death of Mrs. Martin Hansen.
Mrs. Martin Hansen died at her home in this city on Sunday after an illness of some length, death being caused by consumption.
Deceased, whose maiden name was Augusta Lindahl, was born in Sweden fifty years ago, but came to this country with her parents when a little girl. She was married to Martin Hansen 27 years ago, and spent most of the time since on a farm in the town of Sigel. About ten years ago the family moved to Merrill where they resided for couple of years, and then came to this city, and have lived in the Grace House on the east side since living here.
Mrs. Hansen has been sick with consumption for some time past and notwithstanding the fact that everything possible has been done to give her assistance, it was found impossible to save her life. She is survived by her husband and five children, they being Agnes of Winneka, Ill., Anna, Esther, George and Arthur of this city.

The funeral was held on Tuesday
from the Scandinavian Moravian church on the west side, the services being conducted by Rev. Nordling.
West Side Firemen Banquet.
The members of the west side fire department held one of their annual chicken chowders at the west side hall on Tuesday evening. A number of ex-fighters, friends, and the Mayor were present. After the feed two hours was spent in telling and listening to talks by Mayor Cohen, Postmaster Robert L. Nash, A. B. Sutor Frank Rourke, Chief Mike Sierck and alderman Wm. Pribbanow. The matter of purchasing a chemical fire extinguisher, a truck and place for the company to take care of and dry their hose and the building of a city hall were among the live discussions.
The chowder was prepared by George Goodman, who by the way is certainly an expert at it and if there is anybody around this neck of the woods who can beat George we want them to show us.

Spring Weather Prevailing.
We wish to notify those of our citizens who have gone to Florida, southern California and other sections of the country that are supposed to be especially favored during the winter months, that they have nothing on us at the present time. The weather in Grand Rapids has been all that could be asked for by any person who wants an early spring, and it is apparent to all that the ground now know just what he was doing when he staid out of his den on the 2nd of February. Of course we may have some winter weather in May or June,
but no loyal resident of the Badger state is allowing that to worry him at this time.

A good reputation is like an appendix; you can get rid of it in twenty minutes, but you can't get it back in a thousand years.

Bankers Meet Here.
A meeting of the Wood County
Bankers association was held in this city last Thursday afternoon. The members held their meeting in the JLK Club and those from out of town were loud in their praise of the new building. The day was spent in a very pleasant manner by those in attendance.

Mrs. Louis Reichel is spending a few days in Milwaukee visiting her slisters.
District Attorney John Roberts was at Marshall on Monday looking after some legal business.

It is possible that a camp of Sons of Veterans may be organized in this city during the ensuing spring, an organizer having been here during the past week. This city formerly had a camp, but it passed out of existence several years ago.

O. C. Belanger and Frank Chase of Wausau were in the city one day last week with the avowed intention of looking over the amusement hall with a prospect of buying same and
starting a saloon and palm garden.
It was not supposed that the city was suffering for more saloons, but then you never can tell.

Vesper State Center: W. H. Ludwig received a telephone message from Milwaukee last Thursday evening informing him his mother had been injured by a street car and for him to come at once. It appears that his mother, Mrs. Sarah Ludwig, was down town shopping Wednesday evening and in crossing the street she was knocked down by a street car
and dragged some distance. The wheels of the car so mutilated one of her lower limbs that amputation was necessary just below the knee. Mrs.
Ludwig is 57 years of age and is getting along very nicely considering her miraculous escape.

SHERRY.
Mrs. J. Pellman of St. Paul, Minn., is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Whitney.
Miss Winifred Wysocki of the Stevens Point Normal was the guest of Miss Edna Becker this week. Miss Wysocki assisted the Sherry girls in their basket ball game which was held on Saturday night, playing the return game with Arpin. The result was a tie.
The boy's basket ball team played
the Arpin team Saturday night here, resulting in another victory for the Sherry team, the score being 56 to 19. Mr. Glenn Warren and Mr. Earl Edes of Stevens Point played on the Sherry team, the latter acting as official referee.

Mrs. Cotrell and children of Miladore visited Mrs. Cotrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dille on Monday, helping to celebrate Mr. Dille's birthday.
Mrs. Fred Becker is suffering from an attack of quinsy.

Rev. R. H. Gyles of Chicago was the guest of the Northwest Collegiate Institute on Sunday. While here he preached two inspiring sermons at the Presbyterian church, the subject in the morning being "The Master's Call," and in the evening "The Final Question." Special music was furnished for both these services and the people of Sherry feel that they had a real treat and a spiritual uplift.

Mrs. John Parks had the misfortune of spraining her ankle one day this week.
The Ladies Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Frank Parks Saturday afternoon. The study was
"The American Indian," led by Mrs.
Henry Whitney.

Miss Hazel Parks, who is attending college at Appleton, Wis., spent a few days at home this week.
Miss Arnett of Stevens Point visited Miss Ethel and Merle Maier over Sunday.

Rev. W. J. Agnew arrived home on Saturday from an extended business trip.
Mrs. John Jones, who has been suffering for the past three years with a cancer on her face, passed away Wednesday night. The funeral was held in the Presbyterian church, Thursday afternoon, Rev. J. Deans of Vesper and Rev. Brown of Marshallfield officiating. The remains were taken to Wales, Wis., for burial. Mrs.
Jones leaves to mourn her death, a husband, two sons, Will and Hugh,
and a daughter, Mrs. Zarisky, all of whom were present at her death.
They have the sympathy of the community. Mrs. Jones is a consecrated christian, a good neighbor and loved by all who knew her.

MECHAN.
School was closed on Monday in honor of the birthday of our first president, George Washington.
Peter Hoffman went to Beaver Dam on Monday where he expects to spend the summer.
The Hale family expect to locate on a stock farm over on the marsh this spring although they have not closed the contract.

Meahan was well represented at the stock fair at Stevens Point last Thursday owing to the favorable weather and the fact that people are not very busy now.
A crowd of young people enjoyed a social gathering at the home of B. S.
Fox last Friday.

C. M. Barker and Al. Langton are working in the jack pines south of here this winter.
Clyde Kinney moved across the river near Conant rapids where he expects to work on a farm the coming season. His friends have only the consolation of the old hymn, Shall we meet beyond the river.

Waldo Calkins, our town clerk, was over in his neighborhood on Saturday delivering library books and attending other official duties.
Just to show how carefully Uncle Sam handles the mail we cite this instance: A young lady from here wished to send some money to the Standard Mail Order House in New York City and had the cash which consisted of a five dollar bill and several pieces of silver with which she intended to purchase a money order. She carelessly dropped the money into the envelope which she did not seal or even fold the money in the letter and by mistake the letter was sent in this condition. The letter reached the company safely with every cent of cash. This is evidence of the reliability of the service.

Lazy Farmer's Don't Read This.
The United States department of Agriculture, the state boards and the experts all over the country are urging the farmers of America to cultivate every available acre during the coming year. The war in Europe assures the sale of almost everything that can be raised. Every article that is exported to feed the soldiers and the citizens and the stock of Europe means just that much less for home consumption, therefore, even
with big crops of everything, the prices will be high. If it is not a good crop year the farmer will at least raise enough for home use and will not have to pay the high prices that will prevail. Utilize every available acre for grain, grasses and vegetables. In many sections farmers are urged to try a double acreage of potatoes. It should not be necessary, under proper conditions, to import potatoes into any agricultural country, put the hens and the turkeys to work and give them a square deal. Raise pigs, cattle and horses in as large numbers as the accommodations of the farm will justify and any losses that any farmer, planter or rancher may have sustained last year will be more than made good. The war in Europe may last for months or for years, but while it continues there will be an active demand for everything we produce. Should the war end this week the nations engaged
will need all our surplus products for a year at least. Take our advice, for once, and do not permit good,
tiltable land to lie idle in 1915.

KELLNER.
Where is that fellow that saw robins now?
Logs are coming into our sawmill quite plentiful of late. They will start sawing soon.
Chas. Hanke has returned from Chicago where he went to have an operation performed. He is much better now.
Chas. Hasenauer came up from Illinois last week to spend a few days with his brothers. He returned Wednesday.

Mr. Wolf has sold his farm to a party from Milwaukee. He expects to leave for Milwaukee soon to make his home there.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Adamscheck visited their son up in Minocqua last week.

There will be a basket party at the Moravian church next Friday night,
February 26, given by the Ladies Aid. Bring your best girl and have a good time.

George Kruger has moved out onto the old Wm. Witt farm which he has rented from Harvey Gee for the season.
Mrs. Bert Ward and children visited relatives near Amherst last week.

We understand that a Nekosee young man expects to capture one of our young ladies. Better get busy boys before they are all gone.
Mr. Hoffman has bought the old Low Bailey farm in the town of Rome, Adams County, and has a car of stock and machinery here in Kellner to go on the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goldberg had a little child born to them last Friday but it only lived a few hours. The funeral was held from the Lutheran church. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.
Mrs. Turbin returned home from your city on Monday where she had been visiting her children.

Mrs. Wm. Witt was called to your city last week to see her father who was quite sick.
Mr. Ed Huffman is moving from the Henry Hahn farm to the McDonald ranch which he will work this year. A Chicago party has bought the Hahn farm and will move in next month.

Mrs. Ed. Timm and Chas. Knoll leave for Milwaukee on Saturday and will work on truck farms there this season.

SARATOGA CENTER.
For three weeks we enjoyed the best sleighing that has been seen for several years however, the warm weather of last week caused a general break up. The heavy snow storm of Monday and Tuesday ought to mean some more sleighing tho.

Thomas Chrystal, M. F. Matthews and Nels Jensen filled their ice houses last week the ice being very thick
and of excellent quality.
Dr. Norton was called to the Rankin farm last week to attend one of Mr. Rankin's cows but as the cow had gone beyond medical aid the Dr.
could not save it.

Notwithstanding the fact that potatoes are only bringing 20 cents a bushel quite a few are moving toward the market.
Mr. John Pillman and son of Chicago took a trip to Grand Rapids last week and stopped a day in Saratoga Center to call on a friend.

George Rae and August Shrohn have been working for M. F. Matthews at Grove View, hauling logs and ice.
Mrs. George Rae was taken suddenly ill on Sunday night and Dr. Waters was called. Nothing more has been heard at this writing.

Nels Jensen received a painful injury one day last week when a 300 pound cake of ice slipped and fell on his foot bruising it up quite badly
and laying him up for a few days.
Johnie Jensen entertained a few
of his little friends on Monday the occasion being his birthday.

Monday being a holiday the rural carriers had a lay off but made up for it on Tuesday as they had to face a severe snowstorm.
Covert Duff is working for M. F.
Matthews at Grove View.

Mr. Cluge, one of the wide awake farmers of the town of Grand Rapids called at Grove View one day last week and while here purchased a Pure Bred Poland China hog from
Mr. Matthews.

Miss Anna Forslund entertained a large number of friends at the Martin Olen home on Friday night. Games and cards were played. Refreshments were served at midnight and all departed for their homes during the wee small hours pronouncing it one of the pleasantest social events of the season.

Misses Berdena and Floy Berg were guests of Misses Emma and Ida Worlund at Grand Rapids on Saturday.
David Anderson and Chas. Carlson spent Thursday and Friday at Stevens Point.

A number of friends of Mrs. Mary Olen assembled at her home on Friday afternoon and pleasantly surprised her. Refreshments were served and a good time it is the report.
Mrs. Eric Berg and daughter Miss Floy Berg departed on Monday for Chicago where they will make an extended visit.

Miss Signie Heden is here from Pittsfield to spend the week end with relatives.
Mrs. John Jacobson is on the sick list.
Miss Signie Heden was pleasantly surprised on Saturday night by a large crowd of friends. The occasion was Miss Heden's birthday. The unexpected guests were heartily welcomed and royally entertained.
Lunch was served, games were played and a good time enjoyed by all.
Mike Kaplan is reported to be seriously ill at his home here.
B. Y. P. S. will meet at the Carl Kronholm home on Thursday night,
March 4th.

Advice to the Young and Old Man
In time of war living is high but real estate is cheap, then why pay rent when you could apply same to the purchase of a home or a farm of your own. We can find you an investment for $1.00 to $500,000.00. Come in and talk it over at the Exchange and Realty Headquarters, 215 Vine Street.
Some Real Bargains
5 room cottage, 2 lots, barn, good well water, in good location, 1 block from school at $950.00.
9 room house, 2 lots, sewer and water, modern house in every respect, 3 blocks from school, at a bargain.
8 room brick house, barn, and 1 acre of land, nicely located, for $1800.00. This place would be cheap at $2250.00.
Here's a Real Snap
20 acres of land, 9 room house, barn, good well water, large hen house, and some farm tools, two miles from city, $400.00 down, balance on time to suit purchaser.
160 acre farm, 4 miles from city, 7 room house, large barn, granary, machine shed and other farm buildings with stock, 12 head cattle, 2 horses, 1 colt, pigs, chickens and all farm tools. Will take in exchange small city property in Grand Rapids and some cash and balance at 6 per cent interest to suit purchaser. If you are looking for a home or farm to buy or trade, come in and see me at the President' and would have us infer

least is impractical in his efforts to
The Republican has no sympathy
with such peanut political journalism.
It has been a long time since this
persistently and conscientiously striving to do what he considered best for
the country as has President Wilson.
a president who has worked so industriously for honesty and for a measure of statesmanship and executive ability which has seldom been equalled.
We cannot help feeling that the for-
would have been had a certain for-
in opposition to him at the polls been elected. President Wilson is a safe President and we believe the people

Death of Mrs. Martin Hanson.
Mrs. Martin Hanson died at her home in this city on Sunday after an illness of some length, death being
caused by consumption.
Deceased, whose maiden name was Augusta Lindahl, was born in Swe-
country with her parents when a little girl. She was married to Martin Hanson 27 years ago, and spent most of the time since on a farm in the town of Sigel. About ten years ago the family moved to Meridian where they resided for a couple of years, and then came to the city and have lived in the Grace House on the east side since living here.
Mrs. Hanson has been sick with consumption for some time past and
notwithstanding the fact that everything possible has been done to give her assistance, it was found impossible to save her life. She was survived by her husband and five children, they being Agnes of Winnetka, Ill., Anna, Esther, George and Arthur of
this city.
The funeral was held on Tuesday
from the Scandinavian Moravian
church on the west side, the services being conducted by Rev. Nord-
ling.

West Side Firemen Banquet.
The members of the west side fire
chickens chowders at the west side hall on Tuesday evening. A number of ex-fighters, friends, and the Mayor
were present. After the feed two hours was spent in telling and listening to talks by Mayor Cohen, Post-
master Robert L. Nash, A. B. Sutor, Frank Rourke, Chief Mike Sherk, and alderman Wm. Friebanow. The master of purchasing a truck and place for the company to take care of and dry their hose and the building of a city
hall were among the live discussions.
The chowder was prepared by George Goodman, who by the way is certainly an expert at it and if there is anybody around this neck of the woods
to show us.

Spring Weather Prevailing.
We wish to notify those of our citizens who have gone to Florida, south California and other sections of the country that are supposed to be especially favored during the winter months, that they have nothing on us at the present time. The weather in Grand Rapids has been all that
wants an early spring, and it is apparent to all that the ground has known just what he was doing when he said out of his den on the 2nd of February. Of course we may have some winter weather in May or June,
but no loyal resident of the Badger
state is allowing that to worry him at
this time.
A good reputation is like an appendix; you can get rid of it in twenty minutes, but you can't get it back in a thousand years.

SHERRY.
Mrs. J. Peelman of St. Paul, Minn., is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Whitney.
Miss Winifred Wysocki of the Stevens Point Normal was the guest of Miss Edna Becker this week. Miss Wysocki assisted the Sherry girls in
their basket ball game which was
return game with Arpin. The result was a tie.
The boy's basket ball team played
the Arpin team Saturday night here,
resulting in another victory for the
19. Mr. Glenn Warren and Mr. Earl Eides of Stevens Point played on the Sherry team, the latter acting as official referee.

BOWLERS WIN MONEY.
Grand Rapids Men Pull Down Some Cash at the State Meet.
Our local bowlers managed to pull down quite a little piece of change at the state bowling meet which was taken at the local meet. While this was a fortune as John D. would consider it, still it is better than being skunked, and is said to be the largest amount, everything considered, that was taken by any one town. The money was divided as follows: Bissig & Lutz.....$70
Whitlock & Frey.....17
Dixon & Hehn.....14
Phillips & Bodette.....9
Eadie Hill.....3

Bankers Meet Here.
A meeting of the Wood County
Bankers association was held in this
members held their meeting in the Elk Club and those from out of town were loud in their praise of the new
very pleasant manner by those in attendance.

Mrs. Louis Reichel is spending a few days in Milwaukee visiting her sisters.
District Attorney John Roberts was at Marshfield on Monday looking after some legal business.

It is possible that a camp of Sons
city during the ensuing spring, an organizer having been here during the past week. This city formerly had a camp, but it passed out of existence
several years ago.

O. C. Belanger and Frank Chase of Wausau were in the city one day
last week with the avowed intention
of looking over the amusement hall
with a prospect of buying same and
starting a saloon and palm garden.
It was not supposed that the city
was suffering for more saloons, but
then you never can tell.

Vesper State Center: W. H. Ludwig received a telephone message
from Milwaukee last Thursday evening informing him his mother had
been injured by a street car and formally to come at once. It appears that his mother, Mrs. Sarah Ludwig, was down town shopping Wednesday evening and in crossing the street she
was knocked down by a street car
and dragged some distance. The wheels of the car so mangled one of her lower limbs that amputation was
necessary just below the knee. Mrs.
Ludwig is 57 years of age and is getting along very nicely considering her
miraculous escape.

Lazy Farmer's Don't Read This.
The United States department of Agriculture, the state boards and the experts all over the country are urging the farmers of America to cultivate every available acre during the coming year. The war in Europe assures the sale of almost everything that can be raised. Every article that is exported to feed the soldiers and the citizens and the stock of Eu-
home consumption, therefore, even
good crop year the farmer will not have enough for home use and least raise enough to pay the high prices that will prevail. Utilize every available acre for grain, grasses and vegetables. In many sections farmers are urged to try a double acreage of
under proper conditions, to import potatoes into any agricultural county,
put the hens and the turkeys to work
numbers as the accommodations of the farm will justify and any losses that any farmer, planter or rancher
may have sustained last year will be more than made good. The war in Europe may last for months or for
years, but while it continues there
will be an active demand for every-
end this week the nations engaged
will need all our surplus products
for a year at least. Take our advice,
for once, and do not permit good,
tillable land to lie idle in 1915.

Coming to Daly's Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, DeNoyer and Damies, Big Musical Comedy company in their musical Melange and Extravaganza of songs, and Melody. Beautiful costumes, beautiful scenery and the Challenge Ribbon chorus. The big musical production will play at popular prices, 10-20-30c, with a change of program each day.

KELLNER.
Where is that fellow that saw robins now?
Logs are coming into our sawmill
start sawing soon.
Chas. Hanks has returned from
operation performed. He is much better now.
Chas. Hasenlaiger came up from Illinois last week to spend a few days
with his brothers. He returned Wednesday.
Mr. Wolf has sold his farm to a party from Milwaukee. He expects to leave for Milwaukee soon to make his home there.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Adamscheck visited their son up in Minocqua last week.
There will be a basket party at the Moravian church next Friday night,
February 26, given by the Ladies Aid. Bring your best girl and have a good time.
George Kruger has moved out onto
the old Wm. Witt farm which he has rented from Harvey Gee for the
season.
Mrs. Bert Ward and children visited relatives near Amherst last week.
We understand that a Nekoma young man expects to capture one of our young ladies. Don't get busy boys before they are all gone.
Mr. Hoffman has all gone west to his farm in the town of Rome, Adams County, and has a car of
stock and machinery here in Kellner
to go on the place.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kolberg had a little child born to them last Friday
but it only lived a few hours. The funeral was held from the Lutheran church.

Mrs. Fred Becker is suffering from an attack of quinsy.
Rev. R. G. Ryles of Chicago was the guest of the Northwest Collegiate Presbyterian church, which here believed on Sunday. While here he preached two inspiring sermons at the Presbyterian church, the subject of the morning being "The Master's Call," and in the evening "The Final Question." Special music was furnished for both these services and the people of Sherry feel that they had
a real treat and a spiritual uplift.
Mrs. John Parks had the misfortune of spraining her ankle one day
this week.
The Ladies Missionary Society met
at the home of Mrs. Frank Parks Saturday afternoon. The study was
"The American Indian," led by Mrs.
Henry Whitney.
Miss Hazel Parks, who is attending college at Appleton, Wis. spent a few
Miss Annett of Stevens Point visited Miss Ethel and Merlin Mair over Sunday.
Rev. W. J. Agnew arrived home on Saturday from an extended business
trip.

Mrs. John Jones, who has been suffering for the past three years
with a cancer on her face, passed away Wednesday night. The funeral
Thursday afternoon, Rev. J. Deane of Vesper and Rev. Brown of Marshfield officiating. The remains were taken to Wales, Wis., for burial. Mrs.
Jones leaves to mourn her death, a husband, two sons, Will and Hugh,
and a daughter, Mrs. Zarniky, all of whom were present at her death.
They have the sympathy of the community. Mrs. Jones is a consecrated christian, a good neighbor and loved
by all who knew her.

SARATOGA CENTER.
For three weeks we have enjoyed the best sleighing that has been seen for several years however.
Weather of last week caused a general break up. The heavy snow storm of Monday and Tuesday ought to
mean some more sleighing tho.
Thomas Chrystal, M. F. Matthews
and Nels Jensen filled their ice houses
last week the ice being very thick
and of excellent quality.
Dr. Norton was called to the Rankin farm last week to attend one of Mr. Rankin's cows but as the cow had gone beyond medical aid the Dr.
could not save it.
Notwithstanding the fact that potatoes are only bringing 20 cents a bushel quite a few are moving toward
the market.

Mr. John Pillman and son of Chicago took a trip to Grand Rapids last week and stopped a day in Saratoga
Center to call on a friend.
George Rae and August Shrohm
have been working for M. F. Matthews at Grove View, hauling logs
and ice.
Mrs. George Rae was taken suddenly ill on Sunday night and Dr. Waters was called. Nothing more has been heard at this writing.
Nels Jensen received a painful injury one day last week when a 300
pound cake of ice slipped and fell on
his foot bruising it up quite badly
and laying him up for a few days.
Johnie Jensen entertained a few
of his little friends on Monday the occasion being his birthday.
Monday being a holiday the rural
carriers had a lay off but made up
for it on Tuesday as they had to face
a severe snowstorm.

Covered Duff is working for M. F.
Matthews at Grove View.
Mr. Cluge, one of the wide awake farmers of the town of Grand Rapids
called at Grove View one day last
Pure Bred Poland China hog from
Mr. Matthews.
Miss Anna Forslund entertained a large number of friends at the Martin Olen home on Friday night. Games and cards were played. Refreshments were served at midnight and all departed for their homes during the wee small hours pronouncing it one of the pleasantest
social events of the season.
Misses Berdena and Floy Berg
were guests of Misses Emma and Ida Worlund at Grand Rapids on Saturday.
David Anderson and Chas. Carlson spent Thursday and Friday at Stevens Point.
A number of friends of Mrs. Martin Olen assembled at her home on Friday afternoon and pleasantly surprised her. Refreshments were served and a good time is the report.
Mrs. Eric Berg and daughter Miss
Floy Berg departed on Monday for
extended visit.
Miss Signie Heden is here from Pittsville to spend the week end with relatives.
Mrs. John Jacobson is on the sick list.

Miss Signie Heden was pleasantly
surprised on Saturday night by a large crowd of friends. The occasion was Miss Heden's birthday. The unexpected guests were royally entertained. Lunch was served, games were played and a good time enjoyed by all.
Mike Kapitan is reported to be seriously ill at his home here.
B. Y. P. S. will meet at the Carl
Kronholm home on Thursday night,
March 4th.
Those interested in taking instruction in violin, drop a card to Prof. J. K. Bauer, P. O. Box 143.

It's the hungry wolf that chases the pet lamb.
There is talk of forming an appendix club. We hope that they won't have to show the scar as a mark of eligibility.

JUDGE, I TELL OUR FRIEND THAT A CHEW OF TOBACCO LOADED
WONT LAST AS LONG EITHER.

THIS IS WHAT I'VE BEEN
CHEW THAT WILL SATISFY
IT HAS A REAL TOBACCO

THE RETIRED FARMER LOOKED MANY YEARS FOR THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW.

A MAN is so tickled when he gets the small chew of real tobacco that he wants all his friends to use "Right-Cut" too.
That's why you hear men
telling their friends that "Right-Cut" is the Real Tobacco Chew.
A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—cut fine,
short shred—seasoned and sweetened just enough, cuts
out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away.
Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.
It's a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.
One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

The Drink That Leads To Sobriety

Malt, hops, barley, have a rightful place in our diet as a food nourishment. These ingredients are necessary to normal existence. In good beer we get essential food values in proper proportions, and the most appetizing way.
Beer is a stimulant that never leads to drunkenness! It is a food, as well as a beverage. Its alcoholic contents are about 3 per cent. A glass of beer at meal times adds 100 per cent to food values.
Beer is a food in itself, and a digestive solvent for other foods.
Beefsteak and beer are a balanced ration that contain every element needed for existence.
The food elements in beer are only light exercise for our digestive organs; they afford quick relief for the stomach. That is why it is called an "Appetizer."
Beer bottled and aged at your home brewery and delivered to your home is best! It is full of strength, refreshment—it has life and flavor; it is pure and sparkling, wholesome and nutritious.
Dr. Wiley, Eminent Food Expert, says, "Beer is a veritable food tonic—a stimulant of mildest form; a beverage of rarest quality."
Know how good beer is made—know how the malt, hops and barley are brewed; how purity and sanitation are brought to perfection; how the products are free from germs and injurious substance. The safe laws of nature demand a food beverage of universal relish; the same laws of man have provided pure, wholesome beer.

Huntington & Lessig have taken the agency for the Grant Six, a five passenger, six cylinder car that will sell for $735. They expect a demonstrating car here in a short time.
A pleasant was given Mr. and Mrs.
Albert Appel last Sunday when a number of their friends dropped in to help celebrate Mrs. Appel's birthday. All report a very pleasant time.
A. H. Kernin, who has been in the employ of the papermill at Mosinee for several years as electrician, has associated himself with Alex Tiggs and have opened up a shop at Mosinee to handle electric supplies.
Chas. Zitznick, who purchased the business of the Grand Rapids Tailoring Co. of Frank Mazur last fall, has sold the same the past week to Joe Chlad, of St. Paul, an experienced tailor and cutter. Mr. Chlad will do gents and ladies tailoring.
Otto J. Leu of the town of Seneca was among the pleasant callers at the Tribune office on Monday while in the city on business. Since the operation that Mr. Leu underwent some time ago he is compelled to go about on crutches in order to navigate at all.
Charles Smith, who drives one of the delivery teams for the Grand Rapids Brewing Company, was grossly injured with an attack of heart failure on Friday, and for a time was a pretty sick man, but at last reports was considerably better.
Ex-Sheriff Michael Griffen of Marshfield was in the city on Monday on business for the Pelker Manufacturing company, which he represents on the road. Mr. Griffen reports that the leading topic of conversation up at Marshfield is the paving of Central avenue.
Place your order for one of those nice suits made to order at the Peoples Tailoring Co. for $16.50, $18 and $20. West end of bridge.
Irving Persohn was taken ill last week with appendicitis and he was taken to the Riverside hospital at once where he submitted to an operation. Mr. Persohn has been very unfortunate having only recently recovered from having his foot crushed at the Port Edwards mill.
Ex-County Treasurer, P. H. Bean and son Arthur of Hansen, were visitors in the city on Saturday. Mr.
Bean informed the Tribune that he was enjoying good health this winter for an old man, all of which is pleasant news to Mr. Bean's many friends in this city.
Conrad Evanson, proprietor of the Wonder Farm in the town of Rudolph, was a caller at this office on Saturday. Mr. Evanson is a breeder of Rose Comb Brown Leghorns and has made a success of the chicken business. He sends his eggs and blooded stock to all parts of the United States.

suit from at the Peoples Tailoring Co. Stop in and look them over.
Don't buy until you do as it will mean a loss to you.
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Conway of Orient S. D. arrived in the city on Monday to visit with Mrs. Patrick Conway for a week and with other relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs.
Conway left South Dakota about two weeks ago and have been visiting during the interval in Michigan and the northern part of Wisconsin. Mr.
Conway reports that everything is moving along with about the usual speed out his way.
Frazee, is the thing that removes the dirt and leaves the skin as sensitive velvet. Try a can of it for sale at John Jung's west side paint store.
L. M. Nash left for the southern part of Illinois on Monday, he going there to close up the deal on his farm near Junction City, the sale of which was made last fall. The new owner expects to take charge of the place the first of March. The farm includes a large tract of land purchased by Mr. Nash many years ago at a time when it was covered with timber, and he subsequently cleared up a small part of it and started to farm. The amount of land under cultivation has increased from year to year until at the present time there are about five hundred acres under cultivation. The place has been used largely for a dairy farm and the land is in first class condition and will make a number of ordinary farms when divided up, as will probably be done by the new owner.

THE FAIR

West End of Bridge.

John A. Lamont of Wausau was a business visitor in the city on Tuesday.
Miss LuLu Bender is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. George at Black Creek.
George Otto of Black Creek is visiting at the Chas. Bender home for several days.
Ed McCarthy, who is holding the position of Asst. Sergt. at Arms of the legislature, came home on Saturday to visit his family over Sunday.
BIRTHS.
A son to Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, town of Seneca.
A son to Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Mc-Carthy.
A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Chas.
Zeltelman, February 22nd.
A son to Mr. and Mrs. August Franks.
Making Good Progress.
The Mill Fruit and Produce company have the foundation for their new building about completed. The mild weather of the past week or more having made it possible for the workmen to get along in fairly good style, and they expect now that they will be ready for operation some time in April.
After they get to running they will buy all the eggs that can be brought to them, paying the highest market price.
Listen Daughter.
Listen daughter. Your mother tells me that you and she have been talking over the matter of getting a hired girl to do the house work. She also says that she feels sure that you two could get along with the work all right, but the young fellow who is coming around here evenings will think we are not well enough if he knows mother and you do the house work. Don't you worry about that.
If he thinks of such stuff, he is not good enough for you. But he looks pretty good to me and if he is half the fellow that I take him to be he'll think all the more of you when he sees you. So let's put up a little on the job. So let's put up a little game on him. The next time he comes receive him in your kitchen apron. Tell him to amuse himself in the parlor for a moment until you finish manuevering the supper dishes.
I won't be here, you know. He picks out my lodge nights to make his calls. So I won't be in the parlor to embarrass him. Then, about five o'clock ask him if he wouldn't like a bite of lunch. He'll insist that it will be to much bother, but tell him that he may come along and help.
Any man in the world will fall for that. He'll trail along after you to the kitchen. You'll have the stage ready. The costumes will consist of two aprons, one for you and one for him. Oh he'll put it on. If there is anything a fellow will fall for it's a kitchen apron and doing nothing but keeping out of the way. Then you get the lunch ready. Tell him to slice the bread and no matter how he butchers it, tell him his fine. Ask him if he can make a salad dressing.
If he says he can let him go to it and praise it to the skies. Ask him for the recipe. Tell him you'll keep it a secret. What would you like for a wedding present?

DOES NOT AGREE WITH US.

The Milwaukee Sentinel does not altogether agree with the Grand Rapids Tribune in the stand we take on the matter of organizing a bowling league in the northern part of the state.

The Sentinel is of the opinion that the Grand Rapids bowlers should put their shoulders to the wheel and see what they could do to make a success of the state tournament regardless of where it was held. Also that eighty per cent of the bowlers were in the southeastern part of the state and could not be expected to make long trips to the northern part of the state for the purpose of attending a tournament.
All of which may be true and nobody disputes it to any great extent.
To begin with, the Grand Rapids bowlers have always done what they could to make a success of the state meeting. They have attended in great numbers considering the size of the city and they have been enthusiastic boosters for the tournament. In fact they were so enthusiastic that it became contagious, and the other delegates thought that Grand Rapids would be a good place to hold a tournament, and the outcome of it all was that they promised that they would boost for Grand Rapids at the next state meeting and that there would be nothing to it. However, when the time came they failed to make their promises good.

It is admitted that 80 percent of the bowlers live in the southern part of the state. This must be allowing that the twenty per cent of them live in the north or central part of the state. Is it any too much to ask that 20 per cent of the tournaments be held in the central part of the state?
That is about all there is to it so far as we can see, and it seems to be the way the other bowlers look at the matter.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Born, January 16, 1853
Died, February 14, 1915
Riverside Hospital, Grand Rapids Whereas Our Heavenly Father in His wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst our esteemed neighbor, George W. Dennis; therefore be it
Resolved, That we, the members of Nekeosa Camp, 2376, Modern Woodmen of America, extend to his family, his sisters and his brothers, our sincere love and sympathy in this, their hour of sorrow; and be it further Resolved, That in the death of Neighbor George W. Dennis our Camp has lost a worthy member, and his family a kind and loving father.
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, one to the official paper of our Order, one to The Wood County Times, and The Grand Rapids Tribune for publication, and a copy be spread upon our minutes and a full page of our record be set aside for that purpose; and that our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days in memory of our beloved neighbor.

Louis Gross has closed a deal the past week whereby the Grand Rapids Bowling Co. becomes the owners of the Chris farm in Rudolph formerly owned by Mr. Krebsbach. Mr. Krebs-bach has since purchased the building owned by Nic Mareau in Rudolph used as a butcher shop and a dancing hall, and will continue to conduct the same. This transfer was also made by Mr. Gross, both deals being made the past week.
Spring Shooting of Migratory Birds.
Absolutely Prohibited.
From the number of letters they have received on the subject recently officials of the department believe that sportsmen may unintentionally violate the provisions of the Federal migratory bird law, which it is the purpose of the government to enforce rigidly. Under the provisions of this law no waterfowl can be shot in the northern or breeding zone after January 15, except in New Jersey, where the season extends to February 1st.
In most of the southern or wintering zones the season closes February 1, but extends to February 15 in Florida, Georgia and South Carolina.
These regulations were proclaimed on October 1, 1911. No change has since been made in them, and no change is likely to be made until the constitutionality of the law has been passed on by the United States Supreme Court. As a matter of fact, the law provides that all changes in the regulations must be considered for a period of 30 days, and then must be approved and signed by the President before they become effective.
It is thus evident that there is no possibility that the prohibition of spring shooting will be in any way modified this year.
The officials of the department who are entrusted with the enforcement of the law are anxious that these facts be impressed upon the people because it is the intention to investigate carefully all reports of violations made to the departments inspectors and wardens and to prosecute all such violations in the Federal courts. In this connection it is pointed out that prosecutions may be instituted at any time within three years of the offense.

JUDGE, I TELL OUR FRIEND THAT
A CHOW OF TOBACCO LOADED

CHOW THAT WILL SATISFY
TASTE.

A MAN is so tickled when he gets the small chew of real
tobacco that he wants all his friends to use "Right-Cut" too.
That's why you hear men
telling their friends that "Right-Cut" is the Real Tobacco Chew.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—cut fine,
short shred—seasoned and sweetened just enough, cuts
out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the size of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away.
Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is the Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary tobacco makes you spit too much.
One small chew takes the place of two big
chews of the old kind.

The Drink That Leads To Sobriety

Malt, hops, barley, have a rightful place in our diet as a food nourishment. These ingredients are necessary to normal existence. In good beer we get essential food values in proper proportions, and the most appetizing way.
Beer is a stimulant that never leads to drunkenness! It is a food, as well as a beverage. Its alcoholic contents are about 3 per cent. A glass of beer at meal times adds 100 per cent to food values.
Beer is a food in itself, and a digestive solvent for other foods.
Beefsteak and beer are a balanced ration that contain every element needed for existence.

The food elements in beer are only light exercise for our elementary organs; they afford quick relief for the stomach. That is why it is called an "appetizer."
Beer bottled and aged at your home brewery and delivered to your home is best! It is full of strength, refreshment—it has
life and flavor; it is pure and sparkling, wholesome and nutritious.

Dr. Wiley, Eminent Food Expert, says, "Beer is a veritable food tonic"—a stimulant of mild form; a beverage of rarest quality.
Know how good beer is made—know how the malt, hops and
barley are brewed; how purity and sanitation are brought to perfection; how the products are free from germs and injurious substances. The same laws of nature demand a food beverage of universal relish; the same laws of man have provided pure, wholesome beer.

George Otto of Black Creek is visiting at the Chas. Bender home for several days.

Ed McCarthy, who is holding the position of Asst. Sec'y. at Arns of St. Louis, came home on Saturday to visit his family over Sunday.

BIRTHS.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, town of Seneca.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Marcel McCarthy.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Zeitelman, February 22nd.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. August Franks.

Making Good Progress.

The Mott Fruit and Produce company have the foundation for their new building about completed, the mild weather of the past week or more having done the work of the workmen to get along in fairly good style, and they expect now that they will be ready for operation some time in April.

After they get to running they will buy all the eggs that can be brought to them, paying the highest market price.

Listen Daughter.

Listen daughter. Your mother tells me that you and she have been talking over the matter of getting a hired girl to do the house work. She also says that she feels sure that the two could get along with the work all right, but that you young fellow who is coming around here evenings will think we are not well enough if he knows mother and you do the house work. Don't you worry about that. If he thinks of such stuff, he is not good enough for you. But he looks pretty good to me and if he is half the fellow that I take him to be, he'll come to me and ask me to let him come to cook and bake and mend but are on the job. So let's put up a little hope for him. The next time he comes receive him in your kitchen apron. Tell him to amuse himself in the parlor for a moment until you finish manuevering the supper dishes. I want to be here, you know, I'll pick out my lodge nights to make his calls. So I won't be there about ten o'clock ask him if he wouldn't like a bite of lunch. He'll insist that it will be to much bother, but tell him that he may come along and help. Any man in the world will fall for that. He'll trail along after you to the kitchen. You'll have the stage of ready. The costumes will consist of two aprons, one for you and one for him. Oh he'll put it on. If there is anything a fellow will fall for it's a kitchen apron and doing nothing but keeping out of the way. Then you get the lunch ready. Tell him to sit the bread and no matter how he butchers it, tell him its fine. Ask him if he can make a salad dressing, if he says he can let him go to it and praise it to the skies. Ask him for the recipe. Tell him you'll keep it a secret. What would you like for a wedding present?

DOES NOT AGREE WITH US.

The Milwaukee Sentinel does not altogether agree with the Grand Rapids Tribune in the stand we take on the matter of organizing a bowling league in the northern part of the state.

The Sentinel is of the opinion that the Grand Rapids bowlers should put their shoulders to the wheel and see what they could do to make a success of where it was held. Also that eighty per cent of the bowlers were in the southeastern part of the state and could not be expected to make long trips to the northern part of the state for the purpose of attending a tournament.

All of which may be true and nobody disputes it to any great extent. To begin with, the Grand Rapids bowlers have always done what they could to make a success of the state meeting. They have attended in great numbers considering the size of the city and they have been enthusiastic boosters for the tournament. In fact they were so enthusiastic that it became contagious, and the other delegates that came to hold a tournament, and the outcome of it all was that they promised that they would boost for Grand Rapids at the next state meeting and that there would be nothing to it. However, when the time came they failed to make their promises good.

It is admitted that 80 percent of the bowlers live in the southern part of the state. This must be allowing that twenty per cent of them live in the northern part of the state. Is it any too much to ask that 20 per cent of the tournaments be held in the central part of the state? That is about all there is to it so far as we can see, and it seems to be the way the other bowlers look at the matter.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Big Farm Sold.
Louis Gross has closed a deal the past week whereby the Grand Rapids Brewing Co. located the owners of the 1300 acre farm in Rudolph formerly owned by Mr. Krotschbach. Mr. Krotschbach has since purchased the building owned by Nae Maroon in Rudolph and as a butcher shop and a new hall, and will continue to conduct the same. This transfer was also made by Mr. Gross, both deals being made the past week.

Spring Shooting of Migratory Birds—Absolutely Prohibited.

From the number of letters they have received on the subject recently, officials of the department believe that sportsmen may unintentionally violate the provisions of the Federal migratory bird law, which it is the purpose of the government to enforce rigidly. Under the provisions of this law no waterfowl can be shot in the northern or breeding zone after January 15, except in New Jersey, where the season extends to February 1st, in most of the southern or wintering zones the season opens February 1st, but extends to February 15 in Florida, Georgia and South Carolina. These regulations were proclaimed on October 1, 1914. No change has since been made in them, and no change is likely to be made until the constitutionality of the law has been passed on by the United States Supreme Court. As a matter of fact, the law prohibits that all changes in the regulations must be considered for a period of 60 days, and then must be approved and signed by the President before they become effective. It is thus evident that there is no possibility that the prohibition of spring shooting will be in any way modified this year.

The officials of the department who are entrusted with the enforcement of the law are anxious that those facts be impressed upon the people because it is the intention to investigate carefully all reports of violations made to the departments and to prosecute all such violations in the Federal courts. In this connection it is pointed out that prosecutions may be instituted at any time within three years of the offense.

DRYAN TELLS BRITAIN TO LIBERATE WILHELMINA OR EXPLAIN ACTION.

HAS FOOD FOR GERMANY

England Announces That the Allies Will Bring Full Naval Pressure to Bear on Enemy—Kaiser Offers Terms to End Blockade.

Washington, Feb. 17.—"Permit the steamship Wilhelmina to proceed at once with her cargo to her destination, unless his majesty's government can provide further grounds than that already advanced for doing other wise."

This is the "suggestion" forwarded to the British foreign office by the state department on Monday through Ambassador Walter Hines Page at London.

With the new note was submitted evidence furnished by the state department to the owners of the Wilhelmina to show that her cargo contains no contraband of war, and that there is no reason under international law why Great Britain should hold up the vessel.

In a statement to the house of commons in London, Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, intimated that further action would be taken by the allies to prevent the importation of foodstuffs in neutral ships to Germany.

Mr. Churchill, in introducing the navy estimates, said that efficiency was the keynote of the admiralty's program, and that at the beginning of the war the supplies of ammunition, men and oil were complete. Every ship in the navy which was fit for service, as well as new ships which were being built for foreign governments and armed merchantmen, had been fully manned.

"The task lying before us is both anxious and grave. We are now to be the object of warfare never before practiced by a civilized power. So far we have not attempted to stop the importation of food. We have not prevented neutral ships from trading directly with German ports. We have allowed German exports in neutral ships to pass unchallenged. But the time has come when the enjoyment of these immunities by a state which has placed herself outside of international obligations must be reconsidered."

"A further declaration on the part of the allied governments will be made, which will have the effect of applying for the first time the full force of naval pressure on the enemy."

The foreign office announced definitely that if the cargo of the American ship Wilhelmina should be diverted for the relief of the distress in Belgium the decision, said the foreign office, to a British prize court would be reconsidered.

Otherwise the cargo must be submitted to the decision of the court.

The German government in a note to the United States submitted to the state department at Washington through Ambassador Bernstorff declared that Germany is willing to release from its announced policy to attack British merchantmen if Great Britain will cease interference with shipments of foodstuffs destined for the noncombatant population of Germany.

The German note asserted that the war zone proclamation was a retaliatory measure, adopted as a result of Great Britain's departure from rules of international law and her purpose to starve out Germany's civil population.

$500,000 TO AID CATTLE MEN

Bill Introduced in House by Representative Cooper of Wisconsin—No Action at This Session.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Representative Cooper of Wisconsin introduced in the house on Saturday a bill appropriating $500,000 to reimburse the owners for expenditures caused by the quarantining of cattle at the National Dairy show in Chicago since last November on account of the foot-and-mouth disease. The bill was referred to the agricultural committee. No report on it is expected at this session.

Powers Instruct Diplomats in Capital—New Decree Adds to the Tangle.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Practically all the foreign diplomatic representatives in Mexico City have been instructed by their governments to use their own discretion about leaving the capital, according to an announcement by Secretary Bryan.

Some of the embassies here understand that the diplomats in Mexico City have an agreement that if they leave Mexico City they will leave the country entirely.

The situation has been further complicated by the decree of General Carranza that none of his subordinate military chiefs shall discuss diplomatic questions.

This deprives the diplomatic corps at Mexico City of the privilege of dealing with General Obregon or the de facto authorities in Mexico City.

The only alternative held out to them for discussing diplomatic matters with the Carranza government is a visit to Vera Cruz, which they are unwilling to make, lest it be construed as formal recognition.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 17.—A message from Saltillo, seemingly confirmed by another message to the Carranza agency here, says Saltillo has been taken by General Bullido Gutierrez from the Villa forces.

GERMS 50 YEARS OLD KILL 3

Children of Pennsylvania Citizen Die of Diphtheria When Walls of House Are Scraped.

York, Pa., Feb. 16.—Diphtheria germs which had lurked for half a century in the walls of the house occupied by Raymond Miller, health authorities and attending physicians declare, caused the death recently of three of Miller's children.

Fifty years ago several members of a family that lived in the house died of diphtheria. Before the present outbreak Miller had some papering done and a heavy coating of whitewash, which was scraped away, was thrown in a heap near the house. Warm, damp weather, physicians say, revived the germs, which had been imprisoned under the whitewash.

MAKES AMENDMENTS EASIER

Resolution Introduced by Representative Bryan Provides for Ratification by Two-Thirds of States.

Washington, Feb. 16.—A resolution to amend the federal constitution by providing that a majority, instead of two-thirds, of both houses of congress may propose constitutional amendments and make their ratification by two-thirds, instead of three-fourths, of the states sufficient was introduced by Representative Bryan of Washington.

The resolution was drawn by the committee on federal constitution, with headquarters in Brooklyn, N. Y., composed of many prominent members.

The resolution proposes also a procedure of amendment independent of congress and state legislatures by popular vote.

REJECTS U. S. APPEAL

BERLIN TELLS WASHINGTON THAT RELATIONS BETWEEN NATIONS ARE "STRAINED."

TWO NOTES ARE EXCHANGED

American Reply to Kaiser's Refusal to Safeguard Neutral Vessels Reiterates Objection to War Zone Established by Teutons.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Germany has notified the United States government, through Ambassador Gerard, that a state of "strained relations" exists between the two nations.

This being interpreted by state department officials means that a condition of tension has developed which is of serious concern to the president and the American people.

To restore the relations of the two nations to their former state of friendship, while at the same time assuring protection to American ships and American citizens traversing the high seas, is now the problem of the president and his cabinet.

The president is face to face with this situation:

The United States, in a vigorous note, requested assurances from Germany that American citizens and their vessels will not be molested by the navy forces of Germany otherwise than by visit and search in the "war zone" around the British Isles to be established Thursday.

Germany, in an official communication received on Tuesday, declined to grant those assurances and reiterated the danger from submarines and floating mines to neutrals traversing the "war zone."

So an impasse has been reached. The president and members of his cabinet discussed during the day the entire subject of the relations of the United States with Germany and Great Britain, with a view of devising a solution which would be generally satisfactory.

So far as Germany is concerned, they determined to do all they could to obtain a declaration by Great Britain with reference to the freedom of foodstuffs not consigned to the German government or to the German military and naval forces.

If Great Britain will comply with the urgent representations of the United States, Germany has promised to cancel the orders for the "war zone."

"The reply of the United States was dispatched Tuesday afternoon. It includes the fact that representations have been made to Great Britain and constitutes a reiteration of the attitude of the United States with reference to the British decree."

Final note of Germany was polite, but left nothing to the imagination. The American note, like its predecessor, is more than polite—it is anxiously friendly. But still it is firm and shows an unyielding purpose on the part of President Wilson.

FANNY CROSBY IS DEAD

Blind Writer of Hymns Expires in Connecticut—Added Eight Thousand Songs to Gospel Book.

Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 15.—Fanny Crosby, well-known hymn writer, died on Friday at her home in her ninety-fifth year. Her death was not unexpected, as her health had been failing for some time. In spite of feeble health, especially within the last few months, Miss Crosby continued writing hymns up to a short time before her death.

Eight thousand hymns of Christian worship sung in Protestant churches through the world are the work of Fanny Crosby. Thousands—perhaps hundreds of thousands—who sang her songs, which were translated into every language, did not know that it was a blind woman's inspiration which they employed to express their Christian faith and hope in song.

LONG DEADLOCK IS ENDED

David E. Shanahan Is Elected Speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18.—The trick has been turned at last. The house of representatives of the Illinois legislature is graced by a regular speaker. It was a hard struggle, consuming over six weeks of expensive time, but at last David E. Shanahan of Chicago, the dean of the assembly, was elected by Republican votes, with a splash of "wet" and Ignot Democratic votes.

Eighty representatives registered in favor of Shanahan, three more than was necessary to elect. Forty-nine of these were Democrats and 31 were Republicans. The end came on the second ballot of the day, which was the sixty-eighth taken.

HEROES OF MAINE HONORED

Services Held at Arlington National Cemetery—Two Presidents Send Wreaths to Graves.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Memorial services for the dead of the battleship Maine were held in Arlington National cemetery. Patriotic organizations and United States troops, marines and bluejackets participated. The principal speakers were the Cuban minister, Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, and Representative Kahn of California. A feature was the placing of floral tributes from President Wilson and the president of Cuba on the Maine anchor and mainmast.

TEUTONS WIN BATTLE

DEFEAT OF RUSSIANS MOST DISASTROUS OF WAR.

40,000 of Czar's Men Reported Captured—Capital of Bukovina Occupied by Austro-Germans.

Berlin (wireless via Sayville), Feb. 17.—That the Russian defeat in East Prussia was the most disastrous of the war, and that it has been followed by another complete victory over the Russians at the other extreme of the eastern battle front in Bukovina, are the most significant announcements made in Berlin on Monday.

The Overseas News agency, which is semi-official, gave out the announcement that Field Marshal von Hindenburg's third battle of the Mazurian lakes will prove more disastrous to the czar's army than the defeat at Tannenberg or the rout in the battles around Allenstein earlier in the war.

The number of prisoners captured is estimated at 40,000.

This was followed by publication of a dispatch from Budapest saying the Russians have evacuated Carpathian, capital of Bukovina. Austro-German troops have entered the city and the Russians have crossed the Pruth river and are in full retreat.

FLASHES OFF THE WIRE

Washington, Feb. 18.—The government ship purchase bill, as an amendment to the Weeks naval auxiliary bill, was passed by the house at 1:20 o'clock Wednesday morning by a vote of 215 to 121. The passage of the bill followed a 14-hour parliamentary struggle. The measure will now go to the senate. Nineteen Democrats voted against the bill.

London, Feb. 15.—The prophecy that Italy would withdraw her army within a fortnight was made here by Ricotti, the Italian patriot. He said that unless the Italian government decided to participate in the war, there would be a revolution.

Berlin, Feb. 15.—Among the statements given out for publication by the Overseas News Agency on Friday was the following item: "Contrary to British reports that since the beginning of the war only one per cent of the British merchant ships have been sunk, Hamburg ship owners state that 113 ships of 365,000 tons have been sunk, 70 per cent of the British commercial navy, have been destroyed."

AUSTRIANS TAKE RUSS STAFF

Czar's General Surrenders and Ends His Life—Austro-Germans Press on Toward Racoon.

Berlin (wireless via Sayville), Feb. 18.—According to the Budapest Daily Azzet, the Austro-Hungarian troops entered Radatz, Bukovina, so unexpectedly that they captured the entire Russian general staff for the Bukovina campaign. The commanding general of the Russians committed suicide.

The official statement issued here says of operations in the eastern theater of war: "In Poland, on the right bank of the Vistula, our troops are making progress in the direction of Racoon."

AIRSHIPS ON CANADA BORDER

Residents in Northern Montana Tell of Seeing Mysterious Airplane Flying Over the Prairies.

Missoula, Mont., Feb. 16.—Dispatches from Ottawa, telling of aeroplanes reported flying over the Canadian border in the East, aroused comment here with reference to mysterious air craft whose movements have been reported by various towns on the Flathead island reservation. Aeroplanes have been seen, it is said, at points about one hundred miles from the Canadian border. Residents of Polson and Big Fork and farmers on the prairie are among those who told of having observed aeroplanes in their neighborhood.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Memorial services for the dead of the battleship Maine were held in Arlington National cemetery. Patriotic organizations and United States troops, marines and bluejackets participated. The principal speakers were the Cuban minister, Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, and Representative Kahn of California. A feature was the placing of floral tributes from President Wilson and the president of Cuba on the Maine anchor and mainmast.

ASK PRESIDENTIAL BALLOT FOR WOMEN

SENATOR SCOTT INTRODUCES LAST BILL OF SUFFRAGE PROGRAM.

TEACHERS' PENSION SAVED

Senator Skogmo Offers Resolution for Constitutional Convention—Other Bills Received in Upper House.

Madison, Feb. 18, 1915.

Senators Skogmo and Scott figured prominently in the senate. Senator Skogmo introduced a joint resolution for a constitutional convention in Wisconsin. Senator Scott introduced a bill to amend the statutes to give the women of Wisconsin the right of ballot in presidential elections. Joint resolutions for a referendum vote on equal suffrage in 1916 have been offered in the senate and assembly, so the full program of the suffrage forces is now before the legislature.

Teachers' Pension Saved. Without a word of comment, the senate killed 373, which, if enacted into law, would have repealed the teachers' retirement fund.

Senator Ackley's measure to prevent telephone companies from collecting in advance was indefinitely postponed.

The Cunningham bill, establishing more economical procedure to fix the value of cattle reacting to the tuberculin test; the Potts bill, creating central polling places in cities of the fourth class, and the Welschler bill, relating to the prohibition of miners, were passed.

Refuse Session Limitation. By a vote of 48 to 39 the assembly refused to indorse the Jensen resolution providing for an amendment to the constitution to limit the sessions of the legislature to ninety days for each biennium. Mr. Jensen offered an amendment increasing the limit to ninety actual working days, but this was rejected.

Appropriation Bill Passed. The $4,500 appropriation for the use of the finance committee in employing clerical assistance was finally passed in the assembly. This bill will enable the finance committee to employ experts in its work. It is understood, however, that in case the committee takes over the services of any one in the various state departments will stop until they have finished their work with the committee.

A bill presented in the senate by Senator Staudenmayer eliminates farmers' telephone lines from public utilities where the expense is borne by those on the line. This puts them outside the control of the railroad commission.

Bill to Restore Forestry. Senator Tomkins introduced a joint resolution to restore the state forestry department by giving it rein to carry out the broad program which was wiped out in a recent decision of the supreme court. Senator Tomkins also introduced a joint resolution giving the state power to acquire and conserve waterpowers. He introduced a bill extending state aid for the building of roads and schools in the forestry reserve region, and another creating a fund of $30,000 to be used in fire emergencies.

Senator Bossard introduced a bill to pay $5,000 to John A. Aylward and M. B. Olbrich, who appeared for Commissioner of Insurance Herman L. Ekern when the latter was in court to defend his right to fill office despite the order of former Gov. Francis B. McGovern, removing him.

Would Exempt Farmers. One of Senator Ackley's new bills exempts farmers from taxation under the income tax law. Senator Bossard filed a bill prohibiting common law marriages.

A bill was introduced in the assembly to transfer to the state law library the work now done by the legislative reference library. This bill aims to keep the department but removes Dr. Charles McCarthy, present head of the legislative reference library. Another bill introduced abolishes the state highway commission, and another wipes out stocks and bonds law.

State Loans Planned. Assemblyman Hein's new bill specifically provides that the corrupt practices act shall apply to leagues tactics in a campaign. Assemblyman Nyo offered a joint resolution giving the state the power to issue bonds and obtain funds to loan to settlers.

Fewer Births at La Crosse. La Crosse.—January births in La Crosse county were fourteen less than for the corresponding period in 1914. There was a decrease in marriages also and an increase in the number of deaths.

MOTHERS LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

DRUMS

ENTERTAINMENT cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs"

Sherman-Roth
The Anti-Prong
Prologue
A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not enter the time for play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other child's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is sometimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

TO THE OUTER DARKNESS

Flashlight Picture of Diners Will Never See the Light, for Good and Sufficient Reasons.

Flashlight pictures of gregarious diners never, never should be taken anyhow. But there are those who take and destroy forthwith, and thereby hang a tale. The dinner was in honor of a churchman of episcopous degree. He sat at the head table, next the toastmaster, and was prominent in respect to his rotundity and the baldness of his head.

Came the photographer man, admonished the diners to attention—pencil and all was done.

But the episcopous one was inattentive. He had just dropped his cigar case and was making a prodigious effort to recover it from the floor when the puff came.

The photographer brought his finished picture and the chairman looked at it and took him by the arm.

"No," he said. "No. Oh, no. Take this twenty-dollar bill, my young man, and bring me the plate smashed in little pieces forthwith."

For the truthful lens had recorded the episcopous guest in the act of sliding under the table.

SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR DARKENS YOUR GRAY HAIR

Look Years Younger! Try Grandma's Recipe of Sage and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair.

Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly.

Draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Adv.

Careless. "I see by your sign that you are a dispensing chemist."

"Yes, sir."

"What do you dispense with?"

"With accuracy, sir."

"I thought so. That last prescription I had made up here nearly killed my wife."

The Enemy of All the World

It was Silas Bannerman who finally ran down the scientific wizard and arch-enemy of mankind, Emil Gluck. Gluck's confession, however, went to the electric chair, threw much light upon the series of mysterious events, many apparently unrelated, that so perturbed the world between the years 1833 and 1941.

While the deeds of Emil Gluck were of a ghastly nature, we cannot but feel, to a certain extent, pity for the unfortunate, malformed and maltreated genius. This side of his story has never been told before, and from his confession and from the great mass of evidence and the documents and records of the time we are able to construct a fairly accurate portrait of him, and to discern the factors and pressures that molded him into the human monster he became and that drove him onward along the fearful path he trod.

Emil Gluck was born in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1835. His father, Josephus Gluck, was a special policeman, a night watchman who, in the year 1900, died suddenly of pneumonia.

The mother, a pretty, fragile creature, who before her marriage had been a milliner, grieved herself to death over the loss of her husband. This sensitive, shrinking boy, also, was cursed with poverty and burlesque, and was not wanted and Ann Bartell could be trusted to impress this fact sufficiently upon him. As an illustration of the treatment he received in that early, formative period, the following instance is given:

When he had been living in the Bartell home a little more than a year, he broke his leg. He sustained the injury through playing on the forbidden road—as all boys have done and will continue to do to the end of time. The leg was broken in two places between the knee and the ankle. Emil, helped by his frightened playmates, managed to drag himself to the front sidewalk, where he fainted. The children of the neighborhood were afraid of the hard-featured shrew who presided over the Bartell house; but, summoning their resolution, they rang the bell and told Ann Bartell of the accident. She did not even look at the little boy who lay stricken on the sidewalk, but slammed the door and went back to her washbowl. The time passed. A drizzle came on and Emil Gluck, out of his faint, lay sobbing in the rain. The leg should have been set immediately. As it was, the inflammation rose rapidly and made a nasty case of it. At the end of two hours the indignant women of the neighborhood protested to Ann Bartell. This time she came out and looked at the lad as he lay helpless at her feet. Also she hysterically disowned him. He was not her child, she said, and recommended that the boy be buried. She was called to take him to the city receiving hospital. Then she went back to the house.

It was a woman, Elizabeth Shepstone, who came along, learned of the situation and had the boy placed in a shelter. It was she who called the doctor and who, brushing aside Ann Bartell's objections, carried the boy home. When the doctor arrived Ann Bartell promptly warned him that she would not pay him for his services. For two months little Emil lay in bed, the first month on his back without once being turned over; and he lay neglected and alone, save for the occasional visit of the unremunerated and overworked physician.

It would seem strange that from the hands of Ann Bartell Emil Gluck should have received a college education; but the explanation is simple. Her ne'er-do-well husband, deserting her, made a strike in the Nevada gold fields and returned to her a millionaire. Mrs. Bartell, who had been a milliner, was a rather pretty young woman, but shallow and light-headed. At the time she worked in a small candy store across the street from Gluck's ice cream shop. It seems the girl did not care for him, and merely played with him. He was "queer," she said; and at another time she called him a crank when describing how he sat at the counter and peered at her through spectacles blushing and stammering when she took notice of him and often leaving the shop in precipitate confusion.

Gluck made her the most amazing presents—a silver tea service, a diamond ring, a set of furs, opera glasses, a ponderous "History of the World" in many volumes, and a motorcycle. She also gave him a small dog, a cat, a parrot, and a goldfish. He was a very good boy, and she was a very good mother. He was a very good boy, and she was a very good mother.

man at historic Bowdoin college. In 1913 he graduated afterward followed and transferred to Berkeley, Cal. The one friend that Emil Gluck discovered in all his life was Professor Bradtough. The latter's weak lungs had led him to exchange Maine for California. The removal being facilitated by the offer of a professorship in the State university, Bradtough, in the year 1914 Emil Gluck resided in Berkeley and took special scientific courses. Toward the end of that year two deaths changed his prospects and his relations with life. The death of Professor Bradtough took from him the one friend he was able to know, and the death of Ann Bartell left him penniless. Having the unfortunate had the last course cut him off with one hundred dollars.

The following year, at twenty years of age, Emil Gluck was enrolled as an instructor in chemistry in the University of California. Here the years passed quietly; he faithfully performed the duty that brought him his salary, and he was always, he took half a dozen degrees.

He was twenty-seven years of age when he first sprang into prominence in the newspapers through the publication of his book, "Sex and Progress." It was a book for scientists, and not one calculated to make a stir. But Gluck, in the last chapter, using barefaced lies, had brought in a new theory of the universe, and he had brought in a new theory of the universe, and he had brought in a new theory of the universe.

Nothing that he could do could save him. He was convicted, not merely on circumstantial evidence, but on evidence "cooked up" by the Oak land police. There is no question that a large portion of the evidence was manufactured. The testimony of Captain Sheehan was the shrewdest perjury it has been proved long afterward that he had not been in the vicinity of the murder, but that he had been in the vicinity of the murder, but that he had been in the vicinity of the murder.

Gluck entered San Quentin prison on April 17, 1929. He was then thirty-four years of age. As for three years and a half, much of the time in solitary confinement, he was left to meditate upon the injustice of man. It was during that time that his bitterness corroded him and he became a hater of all his kind. Three other things he did during that time. He wrote his famous treatise, "Human Morals," his remarkable brochure, "The Criminal Sane," and he worked out his awful and monstrous scheme of revenge.

It was the newspapers that were responsible for the next disaster that befell him. For the five years following the publication of his book he had been silent, and silence for a lonely man is not good. His only recourse was books, and he went on reading and studying enormously. But in 1927 he accepted an invitation to appear before the Human Interest society of Emeryville. He did not trust himself to speak, and he wrote a letter to the publisher of his book, asking him to have before him a copy of his learned paper. It is sober, scholarly and scientific, and it must also be added, conservative. But in one place he dealt with, and I quote his words, "the industrial and social revolution that is taking place in society." A reporter present, seized upon the word "revolution," divorced it from the context, and wrote a garbled account that made Emil Gluck appear an anarchist. At once "Professor Gluck, anarchist," flamed over the wires and was appropriately "featured" in all the newspapers in the land.

He had attempted to reply to the previous newspaper attack, but no time remained. His bitterness had already corroded his soul. The university faculty appealed to him to defend himself, but he suddenly declined, even refusing to enter in defense a copy of his paper to save himself from expulsion. He refused to resign, and was discharged from the university faculty. It must be added, that political pressure had been put upon the university regents and the president.

Persecuted, maligned, and misunderstood, the forlorn and lonely man made no attempt at retaliation. Having lost his position, and being without any income, he had to find work. His first place was at the Union Iron Works, in San Francisco, where he proved a most able draftsman. It was here that he obtained his first-hand knowledge of battleships and their construction. But the reporters discovered him and featured him in his new vocation. He immediately resigned and found another place; but after the reporters had driven him away from half a dozen positions, he was forced to leave the city and seek refuge in the mountains. This occurred when he started his electroplating establishment in Oakland, on Telegraph avenue. It was a small shop, employing three men and two boys. Gluck himself worked long hours. It was during this period he perfected the famous electrolytic device for gas-giving, the royalties on which ultimately made him wealthy.

He started his electroplating establishment early in the spring of 1928, and it was the same year that he formed the disastrous love attachment for Irene Tackley. Now, it is not to be imagined that an extraordinary creature such as Emil Gluck could be any other than an exceptional genius. In addition to his genius, his loneliness, and his morbidness, it must be taken into consideration that he knew nothing about women. Irene Tackley was a rather pretty young woman, but shallow and light-headed. At the time she worked in a small candy store across the street from Gluck's ice cream shop. It seems the girl did not care for him, and merely played with him. He was "queer," she said; and at another time she called him a crank when describing how he sat at the counter and peered at her through spectacles blushing and stammering when she took notice of him and often leaving the shop in precipitate confusion.

Gluck made her the most amazing presents—a silver tea service, a diamond ring, a set of furs, opera glasses, a ponderous "History of the World" in many volumes, and a motorcycle. She also gave him a small dog, a cat, a parrot, and a goldfish. He was a very good boy, and she was a very good mother. He was a very good boy, and she was a very good mother.

Hits To Patrons On Rural Mail Routes.

The following valuable hints to patrons of the rural mail routes of the Manhattan (Kan.) Daily National: Purchase stamps and envelopes of your carrier. He carries for you a supply of stamps, cards and envelopes so that you may buy in sufficient quantity to enable you to stamp all mail before it is put in the box.

If you have friends visiting you, you should mention it to your carrier, and he will watch for their mail at the postoffice should it not come addressed in your care.

Bad roads are a great drawback to rural delivery. All patrons should insist on township officers keeping the road over which their carrier travels in the best of condition in winter as well as in summer. You travel over the same road, and aside from helping your carrier deliver your mail earlier and more promptly you have the satisfaction of traveling over a smooth well kept road.

When snow drifts pile deep, see that the road is open to your box. Remember the postoffice department does not require your carrier to break the road thru hard drifted snow. If you have a long, hard trip every working day in the year, whatever the weather is, and riding across to be a pleasure every day soon ceases to be a pleasure. So go out and speak a word of cheer occasionally. It may be someone with only his horse for company, and always remember that your carrier will appreciate all courtesies and will do his best to return good for good.

See That Skimmed Milk Fed to Animals is Pasteurized or Boiled.

The fact that the foot-and-mouth disease may be communicated to cattle, sheep, other ruminants, so on, through the milk of infected cows, makes it especially important at this time for cattle raisers to make certain that the skimmed milk they obtain from creameries is pasteurized. Even if there is no foot-and-mouth disease in the farmers' neighborhood it nevertheless is a great safeguard for him to see that the creamery skimmed milk which he feeds to his animals has been pasteurized, as tuberculosis can be communicated thru raw skimmed milk. So serious is the contamination of tuberculosis through milk to swine that the meat packers discriminate against the hogs in certain dairy districts.

The department has long advocated this course, and the specialists hope that the danger of foot-and-mouth disease may lead those who have not been careful in this matter in the past to adopt this practice and continue it after the present epidemic has been stamped out.

Where a creamery does not pasteurize the milk, or where the farmer obtains skimmed milk from other farms for feeding to his hogs, he can make certain that he does not carry the foot-and-mouth disease germs or spread tuberculosis by bringing the skimmed milk out to his farm. Boiling does not interfere with its feeding value, although real pasteurization at 145 degrees for 30 minutes is the better practice.

Can Wisconsin Feed Herself?

She annually produces for every family in the state 440 pounds of meat, 70 bushel of potatoes, 1500 loaves of wheat and rye bread, 350 bushel of other cereal grains, 64 pounds of sugar, 100 dozens of eggs, 2 ton of vegetables, 5 bushel of apples, 20 quarts of small fruits, 250 cans of canned goods, and for the whole state enough milk to float four of the worlds great dreadnoughts. That Wisconsin produces one-sixth of the nation's butter and one-half the cheese made in the United States. The largest cherry orchard in the world is in Door county.

That the peas canned in this state make 49 per cent of the nation's output and would load a freight train 42 miles long.

That Wisconsin produces one-eighth of all the cranberries grown in the United States.

That our state puts in the market more pure bred seed grains than all other states combined.

Our dairy products have increased 85 percent in value.

Wisconsin has risen from the 27th to the 14th rank as a fruit state.

Our state has taken every world's sweepstakes prize on barley at the National Corn Show.

But 60 per cent of our land is in farms; less than half of this is improved. Surrounded with unparalleled markets, due to millions consumers in contiguous territory, the future holds for Wisconsin opportunity unexcelled.

There can be no resting on laurels here. Quality and quantity must go hand in hand and both contribute to keep Wisconsin where she is, a leader among states, and add to her future greatness.

WOOD COUNTY GIRL KILLED.

Stevens Point Journal.—Miss Agnes Simolke, aged twenty-one, employed as a domestic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Brien, 512 Church street, was struck and instantly killed by southbound Soo line passenger train No. 12 at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The accident occurred about a hundred feet east of the Soo line bridge over the Wisconsin river. Miss Simolke was on the way to the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Bellin, a short distance east and south of the bridge. At the end of Wisconsin street she turned south and had nearly crossed the track when the locomotive struck her.

Mrs. Bellin had been expecting her sister, who visited her regularly on Sunday and Thursday afternoons. She had been lying down but was awakened by the sound of a train bell. Peering out of her sister at the bottom of the steep embankment not more than twenty-five or thirty feet from the front of the house, Miss Simolke had escaped the wheels of the train but was struck with great force and tossed to the side of the roadbed. Her back was broken and death was doubtless instantaneous.

The train, which was in charge of Conductor Elmer Thew and Engineer W. W. Willet was backed up and the body placed in the baggage car. Dr. C. von Neupert, Sr. city health officer, and Coroner Houston took charge. The coroner was taken to the Boston Undertaking parlors to be prepared for burial and notification was sent to Miss Simolke's mother, who resides on a farm near Auburndale. According to law an inquest is unnecessary nor will one be held.

Miss Simolke was one of a family of six children. She was born in Appleton and on January 18 was 21 years of age. The family home for the past 18 years has been near Auburndale, where her father, John Simolke, died last June. She came to Stevens Point a short time before Christmas and had been in the employ of Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien just six weeks.

WOOD COUNTY GIRL KILLED.

Stevens Point Journal.—Miss Agnes Simolke, aged twenty-one, employed as a domestic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Brien, 512 Church street, was struck and instantly killed by southbound Soo line passenger train No. 12 at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The accident occurred about a hundred feet east of the Soo line bridge over the Wisconsin river. Miss Simolke was on the way to the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Bellin, a short distance east and south of the bridge. At the end of Wisconsin street she turned south and had nearly crossed the track when the locomotive struck her.

Mrs. Bellin had been expecting her sister, who visited her regularly on Sunday and Thursday afternoons. She had been lying down but was awakened by the sound of a train bell. Peering out of her sister at the bottom of the steep embankment not more than twenty-five or thirty feet from the front of the house, Miss Simolke had escaped the wheels of the train but was struck with great force and tossed to the side of the roadbed. Her back was broken and death was doubtless instantaneous.

The train, which was in charge of Conductor Elmer Thew and Engineer W. W. Willet was backed up and the body placed in the baggage car. Dr. C. von Neupert, Sr. city health officer, and Coroner Houston took charge. The coroner was taken to the Boston Undertaking parlors to be prepared for burial and notification was sent to Miss Simolke's mother, who resides on a farm near Auburndale. According to law an inquest is unnecessary nor will one be held.

Miss Simolke was one of a family of six children. She was born in Appleton and on January 18 was 21 years of age. The family home for the past 18 years has been near Auburndale, where her father, John Simolke, died last June. She came to Stevens Point a short time before Christmas and had been in the employ of Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien just six weeks.

—Ask any of the young men who have purchased suits from us the past year if they have not got more for their money than ever before. A tailor made suit for $15.50 $18 or $20.
